I was minding my own business while seriously nursing my free drink as it was still freezing outside and the bar keep is most certainly serious in his version "Pay to Play" while this old gal plopped herself down on the barstool next to mine with the quietness of and older "Kill Bill" Ninja Gal.

I know that my friends from the Mystery School talk extensively on what the Hopi (not to be confused with us of the Hobo Brotherhood) Indians tell many tales of the “Ant” People who came during the time of the First Humans and how they were saved as the Ant People ushered them to the inner earth and safety from

So, I get the point that David makes that reptilians might look a bit like ants in the dim light of the fire and brimstone unleased as the Comet Venus nipped and tucked the earth as it passed.

Wanda always taught us like our Late Great Guru James that nothing is left to chance regardless of what Old Lady Luck sayz or promotes up on her Myspace Social Media page as they were strong believers in the concept that freewill was an illusion, a bad joke played upon all of us by a bored God.

2A 3

EBX 3 KODAK

CHANGING THOUGHTS ON REALITY

2A 3

Emil's HOBO TOURS 2024

EBX 3 KODAK

Wanda made the argument right out of the Mystery School's Advance Studies Course that God made us believe that we did have freewill in order for us to believe that we were actual players or at least, we had some skin in the game.
This was brilliant in that God never had to say "OPPS" or that he was sorry!

Never could the First Humans think to blame God as they felt that it was that damn freewill that caused most disaster(s) that came along and due to this, many humans petitioned God to take this back while promising they would be good children from that point on (this was long before Social Credit Scores).

Wanda reminded us that God was like this super brainiac and he well knew that had he really gave the human “monkeys” the true power of freewill they would just muck everything up and lay waste to the whole planet in very short order with woke sensibilities and bad remakes of movie classics.

EBX 3 KODAK

At some point, the holders of this knowledge drew back out of fear as the numbers of the uneducated grew to include rulers, warlords and other members of the new age's power elites that the gatekeepers of this knowledge deemed as unfit or untrustworthy and established the Mystery Schools to

What is often overlooked or recorded is active role the Jesuit Brotherhood of Truth played in its efforts to jumpstart Humankind at a reasonable rate to make it seem the advancement(s) seemed organic and a natural evolution instead of a secret, behind the scene, jerrymandering.

This has been most pronounced in the 20th Century where a new generation of gatekeepers fought openingly over the need to speed up the advancement(s) of progress and this explains how we can go from the Wright Brothers to walking on the moon within a single lifeline.

Think about it. Doesn't it make sense?

Still, there are those who now proclaim the misguidedness of this industrial revolution in that it has come to much at too fast a pace for Humankind to properly adjust or apply on a personal level.

Those gatekeepers explain that such admit that all of this is true but that it was a mistake done out of frustration and a fear that the forces of evil would lead to a new Downfall of Humanity long before the dream of returning to the Great Lost Age could be enacted.

Whatever!

The damage is done and like Tony Randal in that great old docudrama “The Brass Ring” quickly learned that it was much easier to release the genie than to get them back in the bottle. You can kind of see this drama as an under-the-radar maya Copa from the gatekeepers as they quickly realized (within a short timeframe

The counter balance was to establish a new rush towards introducing Humanity

so up to a point that the corruption of the Old Order (the established alternative to the Mystery Schools) fell upon them and stole the leaders of the young crusaders away with the temptation of wealth and great fame.

So, it has come to this lost age in which we now find ourselves in as the power (if any still remains) of the Mystery Schools have vaned and faltered after the 1960's failed effort to bring Humanity back from the edge of its own destruction.

Not to say that there have not been bad times before...like the Dark Ages after a similar series of collapse with the death spiral of the once great Roman Empire was no picnic if you are to still believe the stories of the remaining gatekeepers.

The difference is that then they didn't just give up to spirit nor desert the just stewardship of the cause.

great tasting food.
Food that came fresh from the fields and farms to our front doors.
To this day, we prepare our soups, focaccias, muffins & prepared salads from scratch with care and integrity.
Over the years, our simple idea has become a promise. One that comes from nature, to us, to you.
